My driving exam

My driving exam was one of the 1. stressful events in my life. I knew I was prepared well because I 2. taken almost 50 lessons. My instructor was extremely patient with me and managed to help me both learn the rules and learn how to drive 3.

The exam consisted of two parts. First, I took a computer-based test, 4. were thirty questions I had to answer in 15 minutes. That went well, I didn't 5. a mistake. But I could see that some other candidates were wrong and they had to resit the test the next week. Later, we 6. taken outside and each of us had to take the examiner for a drive around the city.

The examiner was really kind and he was smiling all the time. It made me feel 7. and helped me follow the rules. Everything was going well and we were coming back to the driving centre when we saw an accident. It happened just in front of 8. I froze when I saw that, but I knew I had to take some action. I left the car and approached the two cars involved in the crash. While I was 9. what kind of help the victims needed, my examiner called the ambulance. After 5 minutes the ambulance arrived and took the people to hospital. We both came back to the car and continued driving. When the exam finished, the man told me that I had definitely passed the exam and that my reaction when I had seen 10. accident was really excellent..
